

CASE 4

NorthShore

March 25th 2019

- A 67-year old male presented with fatigue, weakness, and anemia. The EGD showed a 2 cm gastric polyp, biopsy of which returned a diagnosis of poorly differentiated adenocarcinoma. Therefore, a gastrectomy was performed.

