

CASE 5

NorthShore

March 25th 2019

- A 36-year old G1P1001female presented with abdominal pain. A CT scan reveals a 13.2 cm right ovarian mass with findings concerning for torsion. A right salpingo-oophorectomy was performed. A representative slide of the right ovarian mass is provided.

